PSEC POLICY AND PROCEDURES

HONORING A FORMER PSEC PRESIDENT JURIED EXHIBITION "LES PASTELLISTES"

POLICY

The Pastel Society of Eastern Canada (PSEC) wishes to honor its former presidents in order to highlight their involvement, their work and their contribution to the development of the Society in the field of visual arts and dry pastel.

PROCEDURES

Guidelines when honoring a former president of PSEC:

- Once a year, each former president of PSEC is invited, in turn, to exhibit a painting of his/her choice, as part of the annual exhibition, "Les Pastellistes";
- The artwork is not subject to the process of jury selection and is not included in the competition for the Awards;
- The artwork can be sold;
- A note is placed next to the identification label of the painting with the following inscription:
"PSEC wishes to honor its former presidents, in turn, one per year, to underline the importance of their work.

First name, last name, PSEC president from _____ to _____ is hereby honored for his/her contribution to the continuity and development of the Pastel Society of Eastern Canada."
